"WHO GOES THERE"

Genre: Horror / Thriller

Synopsis: Max and Willie have been the best of friends since childhood and Max considers Willie a part of his family. Willie is much larger than the average man, standing at seven feet tall but also is considered such a gentle giant as he is very kind to people. But after the removal of a deep centered tumor in his brain, Willie comes out of the procedure a different person and becomes mentally ill with fits of violence. It is devastating news to Max as Willie is placed in a psychiatric institution to keep him from hurting people. The situation worsens when Willie escapes the facility and leaves a trail of bodies that leads back to their small town. When Max takes his family to a remote cabin for a weekend getaway, he soon finds himself in a desperate situation when Willie shows up with ill intent. With no way to escape or call for help, Max must make a stand against his lifelong friend if he is to protect his family and survive.

Log Line: Max and Willie have been the best of friends since childhood, but after the removal of a deep centered tumor in Willie's brain, the gentle giant becomes mentally ill. Things take a turn for the worse when Willie escapes a mental institution and fixates his rage upon his lifelong friend, Max.
